Free Senior Resource Program Featuring Representatives from the Area Agency on Aging

The goal of the Community Education Series is to inform and empower senior citizens and those caring for individuals with special needs with the tools, resources and information they need to make informed decisions," said Richard L. Newman. "It is a privilege to provide this program to the community."

The November 18th program will feature Holly Tuttle, Outreach Coordinator and Care Manager Supervisor, who will provide an overview of AAA services and Janine Slabicki, APPRISE Coordinator, who will share an overview of the APPRISE Program (the Area Agency on Aging's free and confidential Medicare counseling and education program).

ABOUT HOLLY TUTTLE

Holly Tuttle is the Outreach Coordinator and Care Manager Supervisor in the Public Affairs Department at Bucks County Area Agency on Aging. She has been at the county aging office for the past 20 years. With a Master's degree in Counseling, Holly is well acquainted with caregiving demands. Having been a caregiver for her mother when she was diagnosed with a terminal illness, Holly considers it a privilege and blessing to have done so.

ABOUT JANINE SLABICKI

Janine Slabicki graduated from Penn State University with a B.S. in Individual and Family Studies with an emphasis in Gerontology. She worked as a case manager at the Area Agency on Aging, Mental Health/Developmental Programs and Children and Youth and currently holds the position of APPRISE Coordinator at the Bucks County Area Agency on Aging. APPRISE is a free, unbiased Medicare counseling and educational program.

NASW-PA Chapter is a co-sponsor of this workshop. 1 CE will be awarded for completion of this course. NASW has been designated as a pre-approved provider of professional continuing education for social workers (Section 47.36), Marriage and Family Therapist (Section 48.36) and Professional Counselors (Section 49.36) by the PA State Board of Social Workers, Marriage & Family Therapists and Professional Counselors.
