and Passionate About Your Needs*

Richard L. Newman presents "Know Your Options: Medicaid and Asset Protection" and
Eric W. Hopkins presents "Estate Planning Checklist and Associated Tax Issues"

Having a good estate plan does not mean that you have a good asset protection plan and vice versa. What is a good asset protection plan? What is a good estate plan? Come to this essential and absolutely FREE presentation and find out.

Attend this seminar, from an Asset Protection - Medicaid Perspective, if you:

- * are worried about the costs of long-term care using up all of their hard-earned assets;
- * are worried about how to afford nursing home care, which costs between $10,000 and $14,000 per month;
- * think giving a house to children is a good way to protect assets;
- * had a "living trust" prepared in the last 25 years;
- * think that Medicare will pay for long-term, skilled nursing care;
- * are caring for adult children with special needs;
- * own real estate in addition to their primary residence;
- * are considering changing individual accounts to joint account with a child;
- * have a spouse or loved on who may need skilled care in the next five years; and
- * are currently caregiving for a loved one.

Attend this seminar, from an Estate Planning Checklist Perspective, if you:

- * think that you are protected from PA Inheritance taxes;
- * had estate planning documents drafted more than five years ago;
- * would like to know about and participate in Federal Gift Tax exemptions;
- * had estate planning documents drafted prior to a separation or divorce;
- * are interested in how gifting will affect your Final Inheritance Tax Returns;
- * feel that having a Last Will and Testament is enough in terms of estate planning;
- * have questions or concerns about your Agent's powers during your lifetime should you become incapacitated;
- * have questions about how life insurance policies factor into your estate; and
- * PERHAPS MOST IMPORTANTLY, think that doing your own estate planning documents found on the internet, without the assistance of an estate planning attorney, is a good idea.
